

|   |          |             |        |                |
|---|----------|-------------|--------|----------------|
| This model represents the email address of the user   |          |             |        |                |
| It will be used to encode token. As added bonus, for "logout on all device", just change this value |          |             |        |                |
|   |          |             |        |                |
|   |          |             |        |                |
| AuthID Model (user_authid)   |          |             |        |                |
| id  | bigint   | primary key |        |                |
| value   | varchar  | 255         | unique | case sensitive |
| datetime_created  | datetime | utc         |        |                |